SPECIAL THANKS: Thank You Lord for Grace and Favor over my life and gift. The only reason I am all that I am is because You are my everything. The Colors of Your Grace is a symbol of worship; a representation of God's gift to a world in need of healing and comfort, it's to express the many facets and textures of Your Grace in the lives of many regardless of race or creed. It is only by Your Grace that this project has come to life and You get ALL the glory and the honor. Thank you, Cathy and Donna, my amazing sisters, who have created the best management team, ever. Thank you to my Bishop and First Lady Rice and the members of The New Jerusalem Worship Center for your continued support and prayers. To every sponsor, I am grateful for the seeds you have sown on good ground. You will see the harvest in the end. Thank you to everyone past or present who have been instrumental in seeing this dream come to pass. May God forever bless and keep you all.

MY TEAM: Will Gamble my producer, your knowledge and sensitivity to music is always amazing. You have given me room to grow and encouragement to change into what is new. Thank you, Kendrick Fincher & ENVOY, for creating the music and amazing vocals along with your engineering team. Thank you for understanding the vision for The Colors of Your Grace and allowing me to express each note. Tonya Osborne, Cheyenne Brown, Cameron Williams, and Adina Trahan thank you for challenging me to take that leap of faith. Thanks to Travis Fludd for your timely advice and counsel.

“I BELIEVE I
HAVE BEEN CALLED TO GOVERN, TRAIN, AND
DEVELOP SINGERS’
VOICES FOR MINISTRY, IN THE BODY OF CHRIST.”

When you share in the ministry of Debi Dixon, four words come to mind; powerful, melodious, anointed, and highly favored. While other singers have mastered the art by professional training to enhance their talents, she is no different. She has a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Voice Pedagogy and a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Painting and Illustration from East Carolina University in Greenville NC, and an Associate's Degree in Graphic Design from Philadelphia College of Art located in Philadelphia, PA.

Debi's gifts of voice and worship have allowed her to work with over 35 pastors and congregations in the United States denominations ranging from Lutheran, Southern Baptist, Apostolic, Progressive Baptist, Non-Denominational, Church of God in Christ and Episcopalian. Globally, she has ministered and toured in areas such as Japan, Germany, Russia, Italy, United Kingdom, Central America, Jamaica, Switzerland, Romania, Africa and Puerto Rico. She uses the ministry of Praise and Worship her parents instilled in her as a child. Debi's primary focus is to strengthen voices, to build structure and order while enhancing the music ministry within the church.

As a Brooklyn, New York native, she began her journey of ministry at the tender age of five. Aside from Gospel, Debi has amassed a wide spectrum of audiences utilizing her gift in the area of Classical and Jazz forums. Her love for music has given her a wide range of experience in many venues of art, but her love for God has kept her worshipping Him with the music He has planted inside her heart and in her spirit.

Debi currently is the Minister of Music and Worship Leader of all Creative Arts including dance and drama at The New Jerusalem Worship Center in Jamaica, New York. She has been Music Consultant and Vocal Trainer over Music and Arts for a plethora of churches and denominations of different cultures. Prior to returning to NY, she completed a 4 year assignment for a Nigerian ministry of over 3,000 African worshippers in Houston, Texas. Debi has ministered in various venues from small intimate churches to Atlanta's Phillips Arena, Georgia Dome, and Civic Center, with the world-renowned evangelist Rhine Hart Bounky, Bishop Donn Thomas, Bishop Noel Jones and Paula White.

She has shared the stage with Grammy and Stellar Award winners, the late Daryl Coley, Richard Smallwood, the late Pastor Timothy Wright, Pastor Donnie McClurkin, Tye Tribbett, JJ. Harrison, Bishop Hezekiah Walker, Don Moen, Andre' Crouch, BeBe & CeCe Winans, Vanessa Bell Armstrong, Helen Baylor, Vickie Yohi, Rev. Bobby Jones, Pastor William Murphy, Bishop Paul Morton, and many more. She was blessed to have been nominated for Best Female Vocalist, and Album of the Year at the 2005 and 2009 Atlanta Gospel Choice Awards.

In 2015, Debi toured to Switzerland where she performed 14 concerts through Zurich and other surrounding cities there. She has also been blessed to travel to Romania in recent years completing 3 tours under the ministry that she has birthed entitled Ecclesia Global Ministries.

Her vast discography has given her the honor of performing before Ambassadors, Presidents, and Kings. In May of 2016, Debi was honored to be featured at the White House for National Day of Prayer under the first African American president, President Barak Obama. To add to the success of Debi's Music Ministry, she is also a gifted visual artist and author. She is a highly sought-after musical lecturer and worship leader extraordinaire, conducting workshops, and just using her talents and gifts to pour into others to uplift the kingdom of God.

In 2018, Debi coordinated a global project "The Colors of Your Grace" bringing together worshippers from Nigeria, Japan and several parts of the United States. From that project she released her 1st single (Spring 2019), entitled "No Longer Slaves" produced by Will Gamble and Stanley Brown. She is now working on her 2nd single release (Fall 2020) entitled "The Colors of Your Grace". This single written and performed by Debi Dixon represents all cultures and expresses unity and commonality in such a divided world.
